Body Text

Commissioned by the San Francisco Ladies Protection and Relief Society and opened in 1925, this Jacobean Revival building was designed by AIA Gold Medal architect Julia Morgan.

A brick, terracotta, and slate exterior, adorned with Tudor roses—symbols of love, encases an earthquake-resilient, reinforced-concrete structure.

Today, as Heritage on the Marina, the premises serve as a retirement community. Its expansive gardens and timeless design embody an historic legacy of charity and architectural significance, offering a serene and graceful setting for residents and team members.
